Public Narrative

Officer contacted John F. Schlafly who advised that his sister Anne S Cori was refusing to leave his business. Cori advised she is on the board of directors for Eagle Forum and she has rights to the office. Cori agreed to leave at this time so there would be no further problems. Schlafly advised that he wanted it noted that he was missing some papers from the rear trunk of his vehicle that he believes that is sister took. it should be noted that I advised Schlafly that this was a civil matter.
